

August 2018

Dear friend,

Each month a letter like this is sent to donors and friends to thank you for being a partner in sharing the gospel to teens in Latin America and to encourage you to pray for us by letting you know what God is doing through Proclaim.

Thank you very much for your interest and participation.

Recent events reap a spiritual harvest of teens

- A Proclaim team just completed nine presentations in high schools in the mountain town of Quipram – just 4.5 hours away from PI's main base in Huanuco – where 45 students responded to surrender their lives to Jesus Christ.
- Reaching teens in the city of Atalaya was the goal that another team just completed. During 12 events in high schools, 193 students gave their lives to the Savior.

But that's not all – two of their teachers joined them.

Praise God for opening the hearts of both students and teachers, and for giving spiritual gifts to our team members to speak into their lives and to show them the way of salvation in Christ.

YOUNG MEN LEARN THE TRUE MEANING OF THE GOSPEL

Our passion for evangelism to teens

Before October is over, we plan to reach teens in two other cities: Tarapoto in the Andes Mountains and Cajamarca, which lies in a fertile valley.

Urgent goal: $1,200

Thank you for your quick response providing for a projector that I mentioned last month!

Each student and teacher who wants to follow the Savior is counseled from the booklet Mi Mejor Decisión (My best decision) and takes it home to remind them of the truths they've learned and decision they've made. Will you help us print these for the coming months and for next year? Thank you very much for your consideration.

Your interest, gifts and prayer are most appreciated

You are making this ministry of love, reaching teens in Latin America with the gospel, a constant reality, and I am deeply grateful to God for you. May he bless you and always give you that desire to see people come into his kingdom.

Yours in Christ,

John Buerer
